These threshold limits shall be determined on the basis of audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the preceding financial year.
“Guidance on the occurrence of an Event and Information”

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The occurrence of an event or information shall differ on a case-to-case basis and would depend on the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval. For example, events like the issue of Rights Shares can be said to have occurred on approval of the Board of Directors. Events like declaration of dividends would be deemed to have occurred when the dividend is approved by the Board of Directors and the shareholders. However, considering the price sensitivity involved in events like the declaration of dividends, etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the Board of Directors, pending Shareholders' approval. For events and information like natural calamities or disruptions, etc. which do not involve any discussion or approval, the date of occurrence would be the date when the Company becomes aware of such events or information or as soon as the officer of the Company has or ought to have reasonably come into possession of such information in the course of performance of his duties. The term 'officer' includes any Director, Manager or Key Managerial Personnel or any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the Board of Directors or any one or more Directors is or are accustomed to act and shall also include the promoters of the Company.
"Authority"
	The Chairman and Managing Director ("CMD") shall be authorized to decide on the materiality of events and information for the purpose of making the disclosure to the Stock Exchanges. The CMD shall also decide upon the requirement to respond to any queries raised or requests made by the Stock Exchanges in respect of matters covered under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations.
"Dissemination of Information"
